

INVALID CANADIANS HAVE LANDED.

SMALL POX REPORTED VERY PREVALENT IN ONTARIO.

A Leading Light in Brandon Church Circles Arrested for Bigamy.—The Alien Labor Law Being Rigidly Enforced in British Columbia.

London, Mar. 3.—An Imperial trade order has been issued directing British troops on the Bulgarian frontier near Kustendil," says the Constantinian correspondent of the Daily Mail. "This measure is taken to prevent the entry of arms owing to the agitation of revolutionary Bulgarian committees in Macedonia, which is assuming the form of a civil war."

Prince Ferdinand opposes the opinion that the concentration of Toronto, Mar. 4.—Dr. Sheward, medical health officer reports that the three small towns which are progressing favorably. He has obtained information as to other patients in different parts of the province. There are 28 cases attributed to the following:

Algonia, 87; Carleton, 1; Norfolk, 1; Huron, 1; Middlesex, 2; York, 2; Winnow, 3; Muskoka, 3; Renfrew, 1; and Ottawa, 4.—There will be four George Mercer Dawson, director of the Dominion geological survey, died at Ottawa last evening after 48 hours illness with bronchitis. He was the eldest son of the late Sir G. M. Dawson.

arians in Macedonia have been made known by the Bulgarian officers, priests and magistrates. All have been compelled of the revolutionary movement.

London, March 5.—A dispatch from Belgrade, Kitchener, dated Pretoria,
March 4, says that the British troops on the Orange River colony, which was headed off by our troops and is now marching on Fersmuth,
is a few miles north of the Orange River. March 4.—The blame for the

Dawson and was born in Pictou, N. B.
1840.

Godbout, M. P. of Beau-
Port, Quebec, has resigned.

Brandon March 5.—Brandon was visited with its second conflagration
since the new year last evening when the fire broke out in the city of the city of the city of the city of the city destroyed. The building was a three story frame structure located on the corner of Tenth street and Rennie street, and was owned by the city of North America. Loss $5,000. (Cured

The event rather than on the commanders pursuing him. It has been impossible to direct operations by telephone and the feeling is that the British would have been able to take the commanders in the field. General De Wet marched five miles a day for the last six weeks of the war, and the British columns were so demoralized it is believed they will quickly recognize if they are allowed to march on to the sea.

Roseland, Mar. 10. — P. B. BROWN.

Mr. Vanier and Edward Williams, union labor commissioners, have been heard by the local board into the matter of alien labor. One of whom are the men of Messrs. Winters, Parsons & Booth, who have a contract to do some work for the Great Mountain railway, were ordered to be deported. The contractors will be heard the following from Lord Kitchener, dated Pretoria, May 20/01.

United States, where they were captured.

Vancouver, Mar. 2.—The Seattle & International railway is to be absorbed by the Northern Pacific, President McMillan has just received word from Seattle confirming the negotiations.

Toronto, Mar. 2.—J. M. Taylor, manager of the Provincial Trust

"DeWet has been forced north over the Orange river and is now clear of Cape Colony. Two hundred prisoners have been taken and others, who were straggling, being captured."

Eighty members of Kitchener's fighting scouts were attacked by superior numbers and after a prolonged fight and sustaining 20 casualties, company of United States soldiers. The price of the ammunition was $200,000, and the commission of $200,000 trust funds money, which it is alleged has been realized from a sale in December last, of the 400,000 rounds of 30-caliber bullets held in trust. Taylor is a native of 40, who has hitherto borne an excellent reputation and has filled the present position for two years.

huity, a pioneer and leading resident of Brantford, died at his residence here Friday, aged 87 years. Deceased was vice president of the Coughlin lodge of the same name, which was the result of an attack of La Grippe, which developed into pneumonia.

Brandon, March 4.—A sensation caused here Saturday by the ar-

Winnipeg, March 6.—In the legislature last night the estimates were submitted by Hon. Mr. Davidson. The estimated expenditures for the year, ending December 31, 1901, amount to $1,241,612, as compared $1,254,390 the amount of last year's original estimates, a decrease of $43,900 from the estimate. The general fund, this year is $1,257,057, an increase of $2,667 over the original estimate of $1,254,390 for 1960. The receipts for 1960 are $905,163, and the expenditure 1,905,405. The budget speech was postponed until this afternoon.

Halifax, N. S., March 4.—The day night from Liverpool after a very stormy passage. Last Sunday the steamer gear broke and the vessel rolled heavily in the troughs of the waves, causing the damage we reported. The steambship brought the following valuable Canadian, belonging to the coast:

Driver Paky, R. C. F. A., who won a few months before a contest; now in the country hospital unconscious and about to die.

Miss Emma Johnson, 25 years old, British subject, the wife of Dr. W. S. Waxham, 1991 Colfax avenue, attacked near Jaum avenue engine; fractured skull; will die.

Mrs. Uttermoor, who received injuries from the same engine.

Driver Private Savage, R. C. F. A.
Winning.
Trooper Laroque, C. M. R.
Trooper Fowler, Strathcona's Horse,
Winning.
Sergeant McLaren, R. C. H. Ross
and Trooper Dauby, C. M. R. Winning.

trooper Sheensmith Lauder, Nelson London, March 4.—King Edward arrived in London last night from the patient.

London, March 2.—King Edward arrived here at 10:20 o'clock this evening and went on board the Royal Yacht at Plymouth. He will sail in the morning.

give no description.

The peculiarity of the assaults is the fact that of 13 victims, two of whom are dead and two more dying, none has been able to give the slightest information of the assault. The blow descends on the same spot without warning.

There is no description. No sus-lived here at 6:45 p.m. During the winter of '40 her work as Miss Majors, represented the station master with the third class Victorian order. The police going into Flushing by way of entrance.

Inspector Head, Frank Alexander, checked this morning a fire of an incendiary nature consumed the building, which affected the neighborhood, and, although relief came in several cases with the remains of the falling women nobody was observed in the neighborhood. After every case secret investigation was conducted by the police, and the results were as follows:

During this surveillance no suspects were committed. Always within two days after the withdrawal of the po-occupied by J. Dan as a hotel-keeper. None of the contents were saved.

A. A. Robertson will be immediately made with a view to his removal from the bar where he is now operating and to being the proprietor of the bar in the district which is now being used.

Bye AGO

